

Film and video in Language Teaching
UAB Idiomes Barcelona Teacher training course

UAB Idiomes Barcelona is offering a course on how to use film and video in the language classroom aimed at in-service teachers. There will be a total of twenty contact hours and the course will be certified by UAB Idiomes Barcelona. The course language will be English but the course is suitable for teachers of any languages.

Dates

Monday 3rd to Friday 7th July 2017

Monday 17th to Friday 21st July 2017

Place

UAB Idiomes Barcelona, Casa Convalescència, c/Sant Antoni Maria Claret, 171, Barcelona

Timetable

Monday to Friday, 15 – 17 and 17.30 – 19.30.

Price: 400€

Course content

The sessions will deal with the following themes:

- How to write activities for authentic film and video
- Digital film-making in language teaching and learning
- Using film and video to help students learn vocabulary
- Using film and video to foster:
 - oral communicative competence
 - written communicative competence
 - oral comprehension
 - creativity
 - empathy
 - visual literacy

Course trainer

The workshops will be presented by UAB Idiomes Barcelona teacher trainer Kieran Donaghy (<http://kierandonaghy.com/>) who is a renowned specialist in the use of film and video in language education. Kieran has taught in the UK, Italy, Portugal and Spain and has taught at UAB Idiomes Barcelona, the language school of the Universitat

Autònoma de Barcelona in Barcelona, for the last 16 years. He has extensive experience of teacher training and is a regular keynote and plenary speaker at conferences throughout the world. He has a special interest in the use of film in the classroom and writes extensively about film and education. Kieran is the co-author of Films in Health Sciences Education (Edicions de la Universitat de Barcelona) and How to Write Activities for Film and Video (ELT Teacher2Writer), and the author of the methodology book Film in Action (DELTA Publishing).

He is the founder of the website Film English (<http://film-english.com/>) which won a British Council ELTons Award for Innovation in Teacher Resources, the most prestigious award in English language teaching, the MEDEA Award, the most prestigious European media in education prize, in 2013, and an English Speaking Union Award in 2014. Kieran is also the founder of the only conference exclusively on the use of images in language teaching, The Image Conference (<http://theimageconference.org/>), and the co-founder of the Visual Arts Circle (<https://visualartscircle.com/>), a community of practice made up of language teaching professionals, with a shared belief in the value of visual arts in language education. He holds a BA in Politics from the University of Nottingham, and Master's degrees in English Language Teaching from Rovira i Virgili University, and Business Communication from Pompeu Fabra University.

Accommodation service provided if required.

Minimum number of participants: 6